Subject: Consumer Access Certification for VIN-Info

To whom it may concern:

I am pleased to inform you that VIN-Info has successfully passed our structure testing and application review for being a Consumer Access Provider for the National Motor Vehicle Title Information System (NMVTIS). As a NMVTIS access provider certified by the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators, VinAudit.com LLC hereby certifies your application for public access.

This certification is made with the intent that you will continue to comply with all stated requirements for NMVTIS Consumer Access, and that you will inform us of significant changes to your application. Please note that VinAudit.com LLC and the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators reserve the right to audit your application at any time.

Congratulations on the successful integration.

Sincerely,
